Living With Cancer?

Join Other Patients to Help You
Navigate the Uncertain Waters.

Whether you are a patient, family member or caregiver, a journey with cancer can be challenging.

Have you ever wanted to talk to someone about how to cope with cancer, your treatment or the side effects you experience? Are you a family member or caregiver and need guidance on understanding cancer and helping your loved one? You are not alone!

We understand what you are going through. Putnam County Hospital has a support group of people who are walking in your same shoes and want to help you navigate the uncertain waters of cancer.

5 Reasons to Join Our Cancer Support Group

Becky Hutcheson
Putnam County Hospital
Cancer Center
Support Group Leader

1. You can talk to people who are going through the same things you are.
2. You will get emotional support from others.
3. You can help other people by sharing your stories and experiences.
4. It is an informal setting to learn about your cancer.
5. It is open to anyone who wants to attend – no matter who you are.

Sometimes we have a guest speaker. Other times we just sit and talk among ourselves. We always have refreshments. If you have a speaker you would like to suggest, we are open to your ideas.

Will You Join Us?

Next Meeting: Tuesday, April 27th at 5:00 pm

We meet the 4th Tuesday of every month from 5:00 – 6:00 pm in the 3rd floor classrooms at
Putnam County Hospital

For more information, contact Becky Hutcheson, Putnam County Hospital's Cancer Center office manager, at 765-655-2581. She will be leading the group along with Sue Stattner, RN, OCN. Becky has been with the hospital for 28 years and works closely with patients in the Cancer Center for the last 20 years. She lost a family member to cancer and enjoys leading the support group and helping other people.
